GUEST SPEAKER

Roy Crowne

Roy Crowne is the national director of Youth for Christ in Great Britain. He writes, preaches and teaches on issues of youth ministry and culture.

SPECIAL GUEST

One Time Blind

One Time Blind is far more than a drama team—they use music, rhythms, sketches and modern-day language to make audiences laugh and think about God.

GIFT DEVELOPMENT TRACKS

Attend one of the following ministry tracks and learn how the passions and gifts that God has given you can be used creatively in the church. Each track is led by creative and dynamic presenters who are leaders in their area of expertise and want you to passionately and creatively engage in these areas to bring glory to God.

WORSHIP: Learn what worship is—and isn't—then break out into small groups with an expert in the area you are passionate about. Check one of the following:

- acoustic guitar (optional: bring guitar)
- bass (optional: bring bass)
- drums (bring sticks)
- keyboard
- rap/hip hop
- singing
- songwriting
- sound
- technology
- worship dance

PHOTOGRAPHY—capture and express beauty through photography (bring camera).

PAINTING—express yourself through watercolors and oils.

DRAWING—enhance your ability

FILMMAKING—the art of filmmaking from a Christian perspective.

POETRY—basic skills.

NEWS WRITING—write a good news story from start to finish.

COMEDY/IMPROV—the art of improv and stand-up comedy in ministry.

DRAMA—One Time Blind and others show how to use drama powerfully.

EVANGELISM—share your faith.

with friends in a style that is creative, low-pressure, relaxed and exciting.

PREACHING/TEACHING—communicate the truth of God's word in a way that not only keeps people's attention but changes their lives.

YOUTH PASTORING—what youth ministry is—and isn't—about; a great track for those considering full-time ministry.

CHILDRENS MINISTRY—put your love for children into practice.

OUTDOOR MINISTRY—use your love for the outdoors to minister to others.

PRAYER—how to pray more effectively, and why prayer is an awesome privilege.

DISCOVERING YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS—how God might work through you.

SPORTS TRACKS

Sports is more than "free time." Learn specific sports skills, participate in small groups with people outside your youth group and interact with Christian adults who love their sport, high school students and Jesus. Some tracks may require a small fee; instructions will be given in registration confirmation packet.

- Ultimate Frisbee
- Basketball
- Football
- Volleyball
- Weight Lifting
- Skateboarding
- Soccer
